FZ Shared Inset 2018

FZ started the term with five workshops on offer to staff: Evidence Based Teaching, Pivotal Education, Forest School, Using outdoor space effectively and Let's Think EYFS. Approximately 500 FZ staff sampled the different workshops spread across the day. A big thank you to the host schools and the workshop leads.

Evaluations will be available shortly and we look forward to receiving your feedback. We will seek further opportunities to build on these workshops in the coming year where there is interest.

FZ SBM Network

The FZ SBM Network held their first meeting on 4th September. led by Theresa Pawelec. The group aims to: support one another with resources and expertise, arrange joint CPD and collate a FZ supplier list. The group will meet once a term and Theresa will also provide school visits. The vision of the group is to create a supportive network and achieve on a larger scale best value for money FZ schools. For further information please contact: Theresa Pawelec: theresa.pawelec@ambler.islington.sch.uk

FZ Poetry Course

This year marks the 10th FZ Poetry Course. During that time the FZ Poet Laureate has come from: Duncombe, Yerbury, Gillespie, Montem, Saint Aloysius and Hanover.

The poems this year are selected to accompany schools' focus on Black History Month with pupils studying: Langston Hughes, Gwendolyn Brooks, Yusef Kounayaka and Frank Horne.

Pupils study a poem a week for four weeks before creating their own poems which are published. There is a poet of the year for each school and an overall Futurezone Poet Laureate.
